

CERTIFICATE 2 IN AGRICULTURE – RTE20103

COMPULSORY UNITS (Complete all units)

- Observe Environmental Work Practices
- Work Effectively in the Industry
- Participate in Workplace Communications
- Follow OH&S Procedures

ELECTIVE UNITS (Complete 13 units)

The list below contains examples of a range of elective units that can be chosen to complete the Certificate 2 in Agriculture.

OH&S

- Provide basic first aid
- Apply chemicals under supervision
- Operate in isolated and remote situations

FARM MACHINERY

- Operate ride on vehicles
- Undertake maintenance of machinery
- Operate vehicles
- Operate machinery and equipment
- Operate tractors
- Clean machinery of plant, animal and soil

PROPERTY MAINTENANCE

- Install, maintain and repair fencing
- Carry out basic electric fencing
- Maintain properties and structures

PASTURES & BROADACRE CROPPING

- Assist agricultural crop establishment
- Assist agricultural crop maintenance
- Assist agricultural crop harvesting

LIVESTOCK HUSBANDRY

- Provide feed for livestock
- Mix and mill standard stockfeed
- Monitor water supplies
- Maintain livestock water supplies
- Carry out regular livestock observation
- Muster and move livestock
- Handle livestock using basic techniques
- Monitor livestock to parturition
- Carry out birthing duties
- Identify and mark livestock
- Castrate livestock
- Load and unload livestock

HORSES/WORKING DOGS

- Carry out regular horse observation
- Care for and train working dogs
- Provide daily care for horses
- Ride and care for horses and equipment

SHEEP/GOATS

- Crutch sheep
- Pen sheep
- Perform board duties

Electives can also be chosen from a wide range of additional topic areas such as agribusiness, sales and customer support, community activity, fabrication, drainage and irrigation, agricultural science, production and amenity horticulture, arboriculture, environment and cultural heritage, intensive livestock husbandry, dairying, goats, pigs and poultry.